

Castlewood City Council
May 18, 2015

The Castlewood City Council met in special session on the above date at 7:00 p.m. with the following members present: Mayor Paul Friske, Brian Ries, Lucas Mack, Shawn Mullaney, Jeff Shepherd, LeeAnne Dufek and Greg Dobbs. Also present: Sheila Gerhold.

The meeting was called to order by the mayor.

The council met because Collin Tonner accepted a different job position and will not be working at the golf course. The council discussed the employees that are hired which are Dave Sogge, Chelsea Ruesink, Jen Thu, Melissa Gerhold and Bob Bruinsma. The council decided to have the employees set their schedule and Sheila Gerhold do the ordering. Dave Sogge will be doing ladies night and Chelsea Ruesink will be doing men's night.

Karen Akin and Gunnar Johnson have been hired by the recreation board for the various activities and they will each work 25 hours per week. Karen will be doing Art and Various Activities and Gunnar will be doing golf and basketball.

A motion by Mack and seconded by Mullaney to rebid the generators project. A few changes were made so the finance officer is to readvertise for bids to be opened on June 1, 2015. All members present in favor and motion passed.

There will be extra dirt, clay etc. from the excavating of Oak Avenue and the contractor wondered if the city wanted some on the industrial park lots. The council left the decision to Rick Ries to decide if he wanted any of the dirt.

There was discussion on lots available by the industrial park and Memorial park.

The mayor asked to get quotes for a cement valley gutter for the west side of the Ship's Inn. The water coming off Main Street needs to be drained to the south. Quotes will be received for the June 1st meeting.

A motion by Dufek and seconded by Mack to adjourn. The meeting adjourned at 7:30 p.m.
